Just Start Your Engines ... the Just Car Insurance 500 is about to hit town

Australia's leading youth insurer Just Car Insurance, announced today that they have secured the naming rights for the iconic V8 Supercar Championship at Melbourne's Sandown raceway.

The Just Car Insurance 500, Round 9 on the V8 Supercar Championship calendar, will be held at Sandown Raceway from September 14-16. It is the only time the V8 Supercars will appear in Melbourne this year.

Just Car Insurance National Manager, Andrew O'Hara, said, "Just Car Insurance is proud to be involved in this iconic V8 Supercar Championship event at Sandown. This event is the one and only opportunity for Melbourne to witness firsthand the V8 Supercars in action and we're proud to be able to bring it to Melbourne."

"Just Car Insurance aligns perfectly with V8 Supercars, as we have long been involved in the insurance and protection of high performance vehicles. We understand that our customers see cars as more than a vehicle to get them from A to B. Cars are a passion and a lifestyle, which is what the Just Car Insurance 500 is all about."

Just Car Insurance has been a long time supporter of Australia's urban car scene. They were the first insurance agency in Australia to recognise the niche market of imported and modified cars.

The Just Car Insurance 500 is the first endurance race of the year and the traditional lead up to the Bathurst 1000. The event will be telecast nationally and attendee numbers are expected to reach 50,000.
